Will a 3V battery work with 2 LEDs?

Two LEDs in series require at least 4.4V, so it won't work with the 3V battery, but the 6V is OK. That three LEDs are weird. You say two light up faintly and the third doesn't. A LED's luminosity is determined by the current, and the same current passes through all LEDs so they should all three light evenly.

Can you replace a battery with a solar light?

The voltage must be exact when you replace your batteries for solar lights. If the existing battery is a 1.2V, you must replace it with a 1.2V battery. If the existing battery is a 3.2V, you must replace it with a 3.2V battery. Voltage is not interchangeable, since the circuitry is different.
